

STAT

ILLEGIB

March 8, 1951

Dear Bill:

Sorry to have missed you in Nassau where I was for a few days and expect to be again the end of March and throughout April.

A friend of mine was very sorry he missed you there, since he wanted to talk to you. I believe you know him -- he is was in the Air Force Intelligence during the war and stayed in the Reserves. Now he might be going back into the service. In other words, I think he is available and is very anxious to do something useful. I imagine you will hear from him one of these days.

STAT

STAT

STAT

If you ever want to reach me, I am leaving instructions with that anything from Washington should be forwarded to me immediately. Otherwise, in mail can

STAT

STA

With all best wishes to you and your bride,

Sincerely yours,

STAT